THE MORNING NEWS

WASHINGTON.

Efforts to Complete the Tariff Commission.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The gentleman agreed upon at the cabinet meeting yesterday for appointment as a member of the tariff commission in place of Mr. W. A. Wheeler, of New York, declined, was Mr. A. A. Low, of New York. He was notified of his selection by telegraph. A dispatch was received from him today thanking the President for the honor conferred and expressing regret at his inability to serve as a member of the commission. Mr. Low's declination will delay the completion of the commission several days. It is understood that a favorable response has been received from the gentleman selected to serve in place of Mr Phelps, of Missouri. His name is withheld for the present. A special meeting of the cabinet was held this afternoon to consider the question of completing the tariff commission, but the result is not known at this writing.

Nominations by the President.

The President sent the following nominations to the Senate today:—

Daniel H. Pinney, of Illinois, to be associate justice of the Supreme Court of Arizona.

John N. Knapp to be collector of Internal Revenue for the twenty-fourth district of New York.

John Fowler, of New York, to be consul at Trinidad.

Counting the Revenue Stamps.

Quite a force of clerks are engaged in counting the revenue stamps in the possession of the Internal Revenue Bureau, which has not been done for some years. This work requires a force of some thirty or forty clerks, and will occupy several days' time. The work was begun last Monday.

The Attack on Judge Kelley.

The feeling of the House was very strongly with Judge Kelley today in the passage between himself and Mr. White, of Kentucky, while the language of the former was unparliamentary in the extreme, the provocation of the latter was great, and the statement he made exactly as Mr. Kelley declared it to be. Mr. White for weeks past has improved every opportunity to attack the ways and means committee, and in each case his conduct has been without the least proper excuse. It would have been an easy thing today for Judge Kelley's friends to secure severe censure for Mr. White, but they, in common with the rest of the House, are disposed to exercise considerable leniency in his case.

Notes.

Baron Stuve, the recently-appointed minister of Russia to the United States, presented his letters of credence to the President Wednesday afternoon.

While it was thought safest by the managers of the river and harbor bill not to try it under a suspension of the rules, there is no doubt that it will pass Thursday after moderate debate.

The President has sent a handsome basket of flowers to Senator Anthony, in honor of his re-election to the Senate.

Mr. Reed states positively that he has never made an application to Justice Gray for a writ of habeas corpus in Guiteau's behalf. He added that he had not made such an application to Justice Bradley, and declined to say whether he would do so.

Condensed Telegrams.

In a rifle match at Walnut Hill, yesterday, a team from the Massachusetts Rifle Association defeated the New York Amateur club team by a total score of 1242 to 1198.

The Republicans of the Fifth Congressional District have nominated the Hon. James Wilson for Congress.

Gen. R. R. Dawes was nominated for Congress from the Fifteenth Ohio District by the Republican Convention yesterday.

The department of justice at Washington has been informed by the United States Attorney for the western district of Texas, that Stillwell H. Russell, formerly Marshal of that district, has just been indicted for rendering a false actual expense account.

The exports of domestic breadstuffs May, 1882, were $20,107,415; May, 1881, $19,804,618; five months ended May 31, 1882, $55,509,617; same period last year, $91,375,239; 11 months ended May 31, 1882, $167,653,532; same period last year, $344,955,413.

Four rustlers, who bound and gagged Mr. Mason, a storekeeper, near Mesilla, New Mexico, recently, robbing his store of all they could carry, were overtaken by a Mexican posse and strangled. All were Americans, but their names are unknown. They belonged to a gang of Arizona cow boys, and richly deserved their fate.

Wm. A. Peck, Jr., a civil and military engineer, testified at the yesterday session of the Malley trial to having made a survey of the bars around New Haven, and in his opinion it was possible for a body to float with the wind and tide from Kelsey's wharf to the point where Jennie Cramer's body was found.

The Portland, Me., Evening Item states that the Prohibitionists of that state will not support Robie, but that Eustis, the Prohibitory candidate, is about to leave the state, and will retire to make room for a strong candidate. A call is issued for a meeting of the friends of prohibition at Portland, June 24th, for consultation.

The police commissioners of Cleveland, Ohio, have appointed twenty-five special policemen for service about the Cleveland rolling mills, ordered sanitary police on duty with two vehicles for expediting arrests, and have taken steps to prevent the threatened raids on military armories. It is understood the Gatling Gun and Light Artillery Batteries, the Cleveland Grays and the Fifth Regiment of state militia are ordered in readiness for an emergency. The several armories show unusual signs of life.

At a meeting of the Ninth Corps, held in Detroit yesterday at the annual meeting of the Army of the Potomac, General E. E. Sprague, of Massachusetts, read a beautiful tribute to the memory of their late President, General Burnside, and Colonel Delos Phillips announced that the individual placed by the government in charge of the national cemetery at Antietam was in the habit of slandering General Burnside, and moved the appointment of a committee of three to investigate it, and the motion was amended so as to have the committee recommend the man's removal to the President if the charges are sustained. Colonel Delos Phillips, General J. F. Hartranft and General C. H. Barney were appointed such committee.

LITERARY NOTES.

Harper's Magazine is advertised for sale in London at a shilling a copy, while the price in America is thirty-five cents.

The papers of the late Lydia Maria Child are being revised and prepared for the press by Mrs. S. E. Sewall and Mrs. S. M. Parsons, who is a niece of Mrs. Child.

Mrs. Lucy Hamilton Hooper, the wife of the American vice consul in Paris, is writing a novel in which it is said that some Americans who have visited Paris will figure.

Mr. Bret Harte has arranged with the proprietors of the Weekly Herald, Glasgow, for the production in serial form in Great Britian of his new story of California life entitled "Flip." The little story has already been translated into French.

A new monthly magazine, which is heralded as the best of its class, is to appear in England in the autumn. Longman & Co. are to be the publishers; and Professor Tyndall, Mr. Huxley and Mr. James Payn are among the contributors already secured.

A short story by Mr. Joaquin Miller will appear in the next number of The Century. It is autobiographical in character, and is called "Damming the Sacramento." The first article in the magazine is by Lieutenant C. E. S. Wood and is entitled "Among the Thlinkits in Alaska."

A strong interest is steadily growing in the subscription edition of Prof. H. Rayne's complete works, now in press at D. Lothrop & Co.'s, Boston. The enterprise is undertaken for the benefit of the sick and impoverished poet, and has met with the hearty support of the most distinguished literary people of this country.

"Damming the Sacramento" is the title of a short story, somewhat biographical, by Joaquin Miller, to appear in the July Century. Another story in the same number will be "Christiana's Wedding-dress," by Mrs. Schuyler B. Horton. The number will be strong in fiction and in papers on out-door matters.

Ladies, and indeed all persons who are charitably inclined, but particularly ladies—for this work was instituted and has been carried on mainly by them—will be interested in Mr. E. V. Smalley's account, in the July Century, of "A Great Charity Reform," reciting the doings of "The State Charities Aid Association." This paper is to be followed very soon by one on "The Training-school for Nurses," for which Mrs. Mary Halleck Foote has made some drawings.

The Crisis in Egypt.

LONDON, June 14.—A despatch to Reuter's Telegram Company, from Cairo says:—The panic is increasing. The exodus of Europeans continues. The offices of the European control and several banks are closed. The English and French controllers general have gone to Alexandria. All officials belonging to the control have obtained leave of absence. Probably all branches of the Egyptian administration, including the caisse of public debt, will be transferred to Alexandria. It is reported that M. Sienkiewicz, the French consul general, has asked to be re-called. M. Sienkiewicz called a meeting of French subjects today, and said he declined to be responsible for their security.

ALEXANDRIA, June 14.—The governor has issued a proclamation declaring the arrival of the Khedive and Dervisch Pasha as a guarantee of order, and that the citizens may confidently resume their avocations. A Turkish frigate has just been sighted off the port. The Khedive today received the diplomats, officials and several leading Europeans.

Garibaldi's Request for Cremation.

ROME, June 14.—In view of wishes expressed in Garibaldi's will, the minister of public instruction last evening presented in the chamber of deputies a bill, for which urgency was voted, for the purchase of the crematory apparatus invented by Prof. Gorini, with which to cremate the body of Garibaldi. The papers publish an agreement of members of the Garibaldi family to give the island of Caprera to the Italian nation.

The Foundering of an Ocean Steamer.

MONTREAL, June 14.—The steamship Pera from this port for Great Britain has foundered off Cape Race. The steamship Lake Manitoba, which passed Father Point inward, had on board the captain, officers, engineer and part of the crew of the Pera, which were picked up in two boats. The other boats of the Pera are as yet unheard from. She had a crew of thirty-two and eight cattle men. Ten persons are yet missing.

The captain of the Lake Manitoba, after picking up the captain of the Pera and some of his men, cruised around on Sunday morning looking for the two other boats. He picked up the chief officer's boat with fifteen of the crew on board. The boatswain's boat was not found, and has not since been heard from. It is presumed that all in her have perished. Their names are:—Theodore Connelly, boatswain; Henry Scudder, Charles Wheeler, Pat Dalsey, James Chuvchman and W. Mausell, firemen; Robert Wilson, W. Morris, Charles Sanford, C. Tyrell, Mose Gunn, stewards, and Ned Hamilton, cattle man.

Brunner, a lawyer of Norristown, (Pa.) has gone to Ireland to gather testimony by which he can show that three clients—one living in Philadelphia and two in Montgomery county—are entitled to an estate of $4,000,000, which for a year or more has gone begging for want of a claimant. John Burnside, a wealthy shipping merchant, of New Orleans, La., died in 1881, leaving an estate valued at $6,000,000. About one-third of his property was disposed of by his will, but as to the remaining $4,000,000 he died intestate. He was unmarried, and had neither sisters, brothers, nephews or nieces.

THE LATE W. B. ROGERS.

The faculty of the University of Virginia have adopted resolutions on the death of the late Professor Rogers. The following tribute is a extract:—

He came to the University of Virginia when both it and he were young. During the seventeen eventful years which followed and measured his connection with the institution, it is no disparagement to his able and faithful colleagues to say that he was peculiarly its ornament and glory. It was here that he developed that gift of easy and eloquent expression which astonished and delighted every audience he ever addressed, and that rarer gift of luminous exposition which shot through a dark and difficult subject like a ray of light. It was here that he began and finished those remarkable researches which first revealed and then deciphered the great geological enigma of our Alleghany mountains—a work which established his fame as a scientist, at home and abroad. It was here that he helped to mould the characters of thousands of promising youth, many of whom are filling today positions of honor and trust, and all of whom cherish the memory of his instructions as a delightful possession, and will feel that in his demise they have suffered a personal loss.

Professor Rogers left the University of Virginia in 1853, to take up his residence in Boston. Such a man could not long remain unknown or unfelt in any community of which he might be a member. Besides engaging privately in scientific researches, he became deeply interested in the establishment of an institution for technical training in the various departments of practical science. To the wonder of his old friends, and to the discomfiture of a very common doubt as to the practical ability of scholars and teachers, he displayed in this new enterprise rare capacity for organization and management. Triumphing over apathy and opposition alike, and arousing an interest in his plans, which demonstrated its genuineness by large subscriptions of money, he had the happiness of seeing put into successful operation the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, an institution which, it is safe to say, is in its own sphere, all things considered, without a superior, if it has an equal, in the world. It was in the great hall of this institution, surrounded by the monuments of his genius, and by a multitude of revering and affectionate hearts, and engaged in his beloved employ of speaking to his boys, that the great teacher and professor was stricken down. With all its keenness of sorrow, it was a fitting end to a glorious career.

You would hardly think it to look at him, but the man in shirt sleeves who brings ice to your back door every morning handles many a cool thousand every year.

Newport Daily News

THURSDAY, JUNE 15, 1882.

The time to get an appropriation from the General Assembly is at the May session.

Ex-Judge Swayne will not come to Newport this season, but will go to Europe instead.

It is reported that a plan is being started in Washington to erect a monument to colored soldiers, who fell in the late war.

Rev. J. C. Kimball has an able article in the Unitarian Review under the heading "The Church as a Mediator Between Different Classes of Society."

The President is at a loss to find a suitable man who will accept the chairmanship of the tariff commission. If there was any chance of any good coming from this commission it would not be a difficult thing to get good men.

Army worms have appeared in several grain growing counties in Ohio, and they are rapidly destroying the grain. It is reported that there are millions of them on the ground, but the name of the man who counted them is not given.

At the recent conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church held in Providence, the Rev. W. H. Thomas was returned to this city for the fourth year. This is quite unusual, the custom being to limit the pastorate to three years. Mr. Thomas has been so successful in his work that the rule was waived in favor of the parish which so earnestly desired his return.

Zion's Herald says that the Maine Wesleyan Seminary and Female College, of which Rev. E. M. Smith has been elected president, has had during its history not far from 30,000 pupils in its various departments. It is the leading institution of its class in the Pine Tree state. Dr. Torsey, the retiring principal, has been at the head of it for about forty years, in one continuous administration.

A Chicago despatch brings the information that another new telegraph company has just been organized in that city, with a capital stock fixed at $21,000,000, and that the work of constructing its lines has actually been commenced. All of the principal cities of the country are to be connected, and the rates are to be much lower than those of either the Western Union or Mutual Union companies. The projectors comprise many prominent capitalists of New York, Boston and Chicago.

There is no material change in the situation at Alexandria, Egypt. Large numbers of Europeans are leaving the city, and much solicitude is manifested regarding the ability of Dervisch Pasha to prevent further outbreaks. It is reported that the soldiers are still clamoring for the deposition of the Khedive, and even threaten to oppose Turkish interference. The panic at Cairo is increasing, the exodus of Europeans continues. Business men who have permanent investments in Egypt are leaving them all behind and are already anxious to get out of the way of any riot that may occur at any moment, and business is entirely suspended.

In the Senate Wednesday Mr. Anthony, from the naval committee, reported adversely on the bill to establish the office of assistant secretary of the navy. The whiskey bill was taken up, and another debate begun, the end of which no one can foretell. From expressions of opinion by Senators it seems that a measure for reducing the tax on whiskey would meet great favor. The House passed the legislative bill by a vote of 25 to 45. The committee on appropriations reported the invalid pensions appropriation bill, and it was referred to the committee of the whole. The total amount appropriated is $100,000,000. The House went into committee of the whole upon the river and harbor appropriation bill, but remained therein but a few moments.

DENOMINATIONAL COLLEGES.

There has long been been a debate over the desirability and necessity of denominational colleges in preference to those of a purely secular, not to say irreligious character. These latter have not been, as a whole, remarkably successful. A noted exception is found in Michigan University which has become in almost every respect the leading institution in the country. But the churches have been well represented in the faculty and trustees. And now it is said there is a project on foot to establish an Episcopal Hall at Ann Arbor in connection with the university, wherein all students of that faith may reside during their attendance at college.

This institution would be presided over by a warden and everything thereto would be conducted according to a fixed system of rules and regulations prescribed by the church, which should have the enterprise in hand. It is deemed that the project will prove successful in the highest degree, and probably steps will shortly be taken to put the scheme into life. Should this project prove successful it is further intended to establish, at an early day, an Episcopal school and to endow a chair of theology. In no respect will the latter interfere with the undenominational character of the university. This project appears to be meeting with great favor among the Episcopalians of the state. Other denominations will be likely to follow the example, and this great undenominational school become the most sectarian in its petty divisions of any in the country.

THE PROPOSED MONUMENT.

Newport has never ceased to boast as the birthplace of Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry. All her citizens have said by turns that he ought to have a suitable monument and they are doubtless still of that opinion. The opportunity now offers to give their opinions a practical application. The invitation comes from the General Assembly and the state has the honor of leading in the movement, having made a liberal appropriation without any action on the part of the city authorities. It is true the Newport representatives gave the movement their hearty support and it was on Mr. Sheffield's motion that the appropriation was made. There can be no doubt but the city will respond favorably and that in due time the monument will be erected.

As the monument to Commodore M. C. Perry is in Touro Park, this should be in the Mall as near as may be to the residence of the hero of Lake Erie. No other place is so fitting as this. Oliver H. Perry belonged to old Newport and his name should be preserved in such a memorial on the spot where he played in boyhood, and where he lived in after years. While we are all pleased at this prospective tribute to the hero of Lake Erie, there is another name connected with Newport's history and our nation's annals, that should be similarly honored. But for such men as William Ellery there would have been no room for the later heros, whom we now delight to honor. Let us at some time have a permanent memorial to the signer of the Declaration of Independence.

THE CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE.

The proceedings of the second day were opened by the moderator.

The Hon. Rowland Hazard, the auditor, reported that he had found the treasurer's report correct.

The Rev. Jeremiah Taylor, D. D., for the committee on the state of religion, reported considerable interest in spiritual matters.

The report of the stated secretary, the Rev. T. Laurie, D. D., contained some interesting information. The largest church in the conference is the Union, of Providence, with 668 members, and the smallest is the church at Riverside, with fifteen members. The largest gain was reported by the United Church, Newport, and the Plymouth, of South Providence, 27 each. The largest gain by profession was in the Central, Providence, and the Union, Newport, 23 each. The largest Sabbath school is found at the Beneficent Church, Providence, 581 members. The largest benevolence is exhibited by members of the Central Church in the amount of $16,091 34, the home expenses being $15,250 03.

The Rev. T. Thayer, D. D., read an appeal for aid to the Rhode Island Hospital, and advocated the taking up of a collection on Sunday next (Hospital Sunday.)

The topic "The Religious Training of the Young, especially with reference to their reading," was then taken up by the Hon. Thomas B. Stockwell, and the paper was discussed by Rev. Messrs. Bartlett, Stevens, Hawley, Palmer, Roberts and Bartlett and Hon. Amos C. Barstow.

At the opening of the afternoon session the pastoral letter was read by Rev. Mr. Bartlett of South Kingston.

A resolution commending the large and generous hospitality of the United church, of Newport, unanimously passed the conference, after which the body adjourned, sine die.

The annual meeting of the R. I. Home Missionary Society immediately followed, the Rev. Dr. Laurie being called to the chair.

The annual report was then read by the secretary, the Rev. J. Taylor, D. D. The past year has been more successful with the present society than ever before to the amount of $36,000. One of the missionary churches in the state has become self-supporting—the Globe church at Woonsocket. The amount expended in Rhode Island is $2348.42.

The committee on nominations reported the following officers for the year, and they were unanimously elected:—

President—R. Hazard.

First Vice President—W. W. Hopkins.

Second Vice President—The Rev. T. Thayer, D. D.

Treasurer—Edwin Barrows.

Directors—The Rev. J. G. Vose, D. D., the Rev. A. J. F. Behrends, D. D., the Rev. George Harris, the Rev. J. H. Lyon, Mr. Brooks, the Rev. T. Laurie, Bro. H. Wilkinson.

Auditor—Deacon A. C. Barstow.

Adjourned sine die.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

FIRE STATION, No. 2.,
June, 1882.

At a meeting of Rough and Ready Steam Fire Engine Company No. 2, held June 11th, 1882, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

WHEREAS, God in His infinite wisdom and mercy has been pleased to remove from this world, Nicholas Gladding, an active and devoted member of this company, we deem it appropriate to express the sorrow we feel in his sudden removal from among us, to testify to his good character, his devotion and efficiency when called upon to perform the duties of his station in this company, and to deplore the loss which we as a company sincerely feel.

Resolved, That we attend his funeral in a body with the usual badge of mourning.

Resolved, That we tender to the bereaved widow and children of the deceased, our heartfelt sympathy in their sudden affliction.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the widow of the deceased, and published in the daily paper.

J. D. PIKE, Committee.

THE ELECTRIC LIGHT.

As so many of our citizens voted for the the introduction of the electric light because they supposed it would add to the attraction of the city as a watering place, and for no other reason, it is well to hear from the summer residents and their friends on the subject. The following protest, signed by most of those who are here residing on the avenue and its immediate vicinity, has been forwarded to the City Council, and a copy forwarded to the representative of The Weston Electric Light Company. There does not seem any good reason for forcing even what we may esteem a blessing on such unwilling people:—

To the Honorable City Council of Newport:—

The undersigned, property owners in Newport, earnestly protest against the disfigurement of Bellevue avenue below the Ocean House by the placing of poles either of timber or of iron for the purpose of carrying lines for the electric light. If it is necessary to have the electric light upon that part of the avenue the lines should be under ground.

THE YEARLY MEETING.

THE EPISTLE FROM ENGLAND.—DETRACTION CONDEMNED.—LOVE OF GOD THE PANACEA FOR ALL EVILS.—THE BIBLE SCHOOL COMMITTEE'S REPORT.—THE TEMPERANCE QUESTION AND THE REPORT THEREON.

The yearly meeting assembled Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock, the men and women meeting in separate session. The epistle from the London yearly meeting was read. It reported that the old meeting houses had in some cases been reopened and Friends in England have much for which to be thankful. A minute on the state of society set forth the necessity of purity in the church in order that it may have power. Evening meetings were recommended where members could not attend in the day time. Detraction was condemned as a great evil. The grand panacea for all evils in the church is the love of God. Testimony was borne against the use of intoxicating liquors in any form. The summary of answers to the queries for the meeting of ministers and elders was read, reporting good attendance at the meetings. The training of their children is carefully attended to. A minute was read expressing the blessings which had fallen upon the meeting, and the sweet words spoken to them. We appoint our friends George Howland, Jr., Owen Dame and Benjamin F. Knowles in connection with Charles F. Coffin trustees, to convey title to certain parcels of real estate held in Washington.

The report of the Bible school committee was read as follows:—

In presenting to the yearly meeting the report of another year's work the question arises how much has been done during the past year towards increasing the interest in Bible schools? The interest is certainly increasing and a stronger religious influence manifested for which we have reason to thank our Heavenly Father. We think there is no instrumentality so well calculated to build up and strengthen our meetings as Bible schools conducted under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Interesting conferences have been held in all our quarterly meetings except one. We regret that there are no schools in quite a number of our meetings. We find that we have 2356 members with an average attendance of 1416. Considering the great importance of this work and its claims on the church for its fostering care and aid, we recommend it be continued under the care of a committee and that the sum of $100 be appropriated for its use.

The treasurer of the Bible school funds reports:—

Balance from last year	$ 81.21
Received from Yearly Meeting	50.00
Total	$131.21
Expended for Bible School Literature	$ 57.45
Library Aid	20.00
Printing	25.20
Balance on hand	21.56
	$131.21

WILLIAM F. COLLINS, Treasurer.

It was also stated that an amount had been raised by the schools equal to the amount expended for them.

The following committee was appointed for the ensuing year to act with a similar committee of women Friends:—William T. Collins, Olney T. Meader, John F. Tucker, Charles W. Goddard, John Metcalf, Caleb Jones, Samuel Buffum, I. Warren Hawkes.

The report of the joint committee on temperance was received and thankfulness expressed that the sentiment on the temperance question is advancing in New England. Schools have been addressed all over the country and large temperance meetings held in some places in connection with quarterly meetings and conferences. The committee had also visited the scholars at the Providence boarding school, where they met with a warm welcome. They have used their influence against the use of tobacco, believing that it stimulates an appetite for liquor. We see the actual needs in this work and recommend that it be continued under the care of a committee, and that $200 be raised for the coming year.

The treasurer of the committee reports as follows:—

Balance for last year	$ 65.50
Received from Treasurer of the Yearly Meeting	125.00
Received from Other Sources	1.30
	$191.80
Paid out by Direction of the Committee	$141.28
Balance on hand	50.52
	$191.80

Interesting remarks were made on the subject by Franklin Blair, of North Carolina, and by others. The report of the temperance committee was accepted and the same committee continued for another year with the addition of James P. Boyce, Lizzie T. Larkin and Alice W. Hobbs. The subject of this appropriation was referred to the committee on finance.

The reports of the sessions held by the representative meetings during the past year were then read. At the meeting held on the 11th of 10th month, 1881, resolutions were adopted deploring the sad death of our late beloved President, James A. Garfield, and expressing the deep sympathy of the meeting for Lucretia R. Garfield, to whom a copy of the resolutions were forwarded, which she gratefully acknowledged. A circular has been issued on "The Use of Opium," which was distributed among the members of Congress, ministers of other denominations and among our own members.

The proceedings of the representative meeting were fully approved and adopted. The committee, to appoint a committee to have care of general meetings and similar work, reported the names of Rebecca H. Smiley and others, and their report was accepted.

Report of committee on North Carolina missions was then read, showing the need of aid in that state. Five schools have been maintained with one hundred and seventy-five scholars in attendance, and an appropriation of $350 was recommended. The report was accepted, and the same committee continued.

The report of the committee on the disbursement of the Mosher fund was read, showing a balance from last year of $171.46, and of additional receipts amounting to $453.83. The report was accepted, and a committee appointed to bring in names for a new committee for the ensuing year.

The epistle which has been addressed to Ireland was next read, also the epistle to Baltimore yearly meeting. The report of the committee on peace was accepted and same committee continued.

At 7 o'clock the meeting adjourned till Thursday at 2 P. M.

On Wednesday evening there were two meetings. One was held in the women's part, and devoted to the subject of temperance with children. The addresses were of a very interesting character.

The Bible schools and Sunday schools were the subjects of the addresses in the men's part.

Rebecca Collins, of New York, offered a fervent prayer.

James R. Jones, of North Carolina, spoke directly to the question, "How to get the children into the Sunday schools." He said his first method would be to impress upon the parents the absolute necessity of the children's attendance. He would teach the parents the necessity of going with them, and staying with them. He would make it a matter of personal effort until the children would have the continual necessity ringing in their ears. After that he would visit from house to house, and know the reason why the children had not been sent to school. If the excuse was that there was no fit clothing he would have clothing provided and get them in that way. Then he would have a social in his house and invite all the children of the neighborhood, and give them some good things, for you can reach some people through their stomachs. Then he would tell them how glad he would be to see them at Sunday school and he felt reasonably sure they would come. After this he would get up a picnic for other children and would go into the country and enjoy a good time, and by all these means would attract the children to the school and make the school as pleasant as possible. Then you must talk to them on the street, shake hands with them, and make them understand that you have an interest in them. Then when you see a strange face go and have a word to say and shake hands and make the new comers feel at home. In this way they would feel that they were welcome and good would result.

Micajah M. Binford was the next speaker, and in the course of his address said that the work of the teacher and the preacher was very much alike. Unless the teacher in the Sunday school knows something of the Lord Jesus Christ himself, he does not possess that sort of wisdom that is required there. Too often we teach certain departments of learning and leave the main points. The Sabbath school teacher often learns the most because of being directed toward the preparation of lessons for others. But unfortunately too many of us try and get away from Sunday school work, believing that we had done enough and that some one else might take a turn. We should not do this way, but stick right to the work. To make a success of the work we must bring forward the chief points of the lesson and confine the attention of the class to it. He urged the Friends to have the very best Sabbath school papers that could be prepared. He believed that the moral safety of our nation lies in the progress of our Sunday school work.

J. S. Blair spoke of the best manner of teaching the children. He said we must be prepared by prayer, meditation, reading and study if we would successfully interest the young. A superintendent should be a man thoroughly filled with the spirit of God, and should be possessed of executive ability. He should call his teachers together early in the week, and go over the next lesson with them, and get their ideas stirred up so that during the intervening days they might be on the alert to get improved on this or that thought. The speaker continued with many excellent suggestions regarding the best mode of preparing for, and teaching the youth.

Several other addresses of an equally interesting character were made during the evening.

THURSDAY MORNING.

Thursday morning's meeting was opened soon after half past ten o'clock. There was a crowded attendance.

Rebecca Collins, of New York, made the opening prayer and was followed by a male Friend.

Dr. Young addressed the meeting at some length. He said there could be no doubt but that this yearly meeting had been a season of blessed revival; that enlivening showers had been poured down and the fruits of the Christian field had multiplied. Christ teaches that as our prayers abide in Him, a blessing would rest upon them. He trusted that we should continue the good work and not lapse into indifference. Now that we have the relationship we occupy, we must not be satisfied without personal progress and experimental advancement. He wants us to show strength of character in order that it may be recognized that God is our reserve force. Not only is it necessary in these yearly meetings but in the little meetings. We want to continue in brotherly love at all times, and let it be manifest upon all occasions. He wanted the ministry of the people to work the wonders which would be acceptable in the sight of God. We must hold others not of our faith, and ask that the Lord's blessing attend their works. Let the ministry flow out in power. Let us look after the little ones in the fold, and the down trodden ones in our neighborhood. There may be causes that lead to their lack of interest; whatever that lack is caused by, let us remove the obstacle to their coming to the meetings, and receive the spirit of the Lord. Do not become blind to the duties of life or you will lose your place in the divine household. We want to recognize that Christ died for the church. The Corinthians declared that Christ was in God reconciling the world unto him. The representatives of the Lord Jesus must carry forward the work that the Lord has ordered, and be interested in all men. Let us recognize that through subtlety man is led from one sin to another, and make a determined effort to save him. Let us be clothed with a spirit of charity for all men. In our communication with them let us do everything with love in order that we may be brought to stand with God's blood-washed children. He hoped that now this season of service was drawing to a close there would be proof of the result of their labors. He hoped there would be a glorious harvest brought up to the praise of God. He hoped that many of the young would hereafter stand up as heralds of the Lord. The old people must not be satisfied with the positions they have heretofore occupied. They must do their portion according to their strength. "In the morning sow the seed and in the evening withhold not thy hand." Beloved fathers and mothers inspire you with the spirits for the benefit of those who have so long been away from Christ. He wanted to encourage the young. They must not think that because they have little power of speech and little ability to give testimony, that their attempts will not be gladly received. He will reward you for the very weakest effort you make if made conscientiously. Let our consolations come from God. May God bless us and may he clothe the ministers and make them stand fast to Christ in their appointment, and stand fast in obedience. God will make us rich in the blessings with which he will endow us if we are good. He will say, "Well done good and faithful servants." Faithful in little, but worthy of reward.

Dr. Rhodes said he felt constrained to say a few words. There are times in the age of every christian when he is called upon to tell his experience. What is the faith of the society of Friends? Many feel they would like to know more about it. We say with William Penn that the grace of God within me and the scripture of truth without are the foundation of my belief and he would like to know what better there could be. But young people say "we need more than that." Have you anything more?" They had. He quoted the scripture to say that their faith had been continual, and had never changed. He repeated the several portions of the creed and said they believed in that also.

The Newport Journal, printed on Friday afternoon, will contain a full report of the session of the Friends' yearly meeting at this place and will be a valuable paper to send to friends abroad or for filing away for after reference. Copies will be mailed to any address, postage free, and orders may be left at the Daily News office, 137 Thames street, at any time during the week.

School girls and boys who would like to aid the Flower Mission may do so by gathering daisies, buttercups, etc., and leaving them Saturdays from 10 to 2 at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association.

RIFLE SHOOTING.

The Fort and Newport teams shot their second match at Paradise range Wednesday, the Newport team again winning. The conditions were 200 yards off-hand Creedmoor target, military rifles allowed 2 points each. The score was:—

The match between the Massachusetts and Newport teams at Walnut Hill range, that was to be shot during the coming spring meeting there, is off for the present at least. The Massachusetts team insisted on using either the ring or Massachusetts targets, and as the home team has had no practice on these targets lately it would not agree to the change. The Newport club will practice during the summer and hopes to send one and perhaps two teams to the fall meeting at Creedmoor. Mr. Farrow intends to start a shooting school and it is expected that a number of new shots will be brought out.

ABOUT WOMEN.

Mrs. Shelton, of Santa Clara county, first introduced bees into California in 1853.

Alida C. Avery, M. D., of Denver, for six years Professor of Hygiene at Vassar College, has accepted the appointment of Superintendent of Hygiene for Colorado.

Mrs. Myra Bradshaw commenced the publication of the Chicago Legal News in October, 1868. It has become one of the foremost legal newspapers in America.

Twenty-five women physicians who took part in the military operations of Russia in 1877, have been decorated by the emperor with the order of St. Stanislas of the third class.

Mrs. Porter, a wealthy lady of Chicago, has founded a hospital for the care of poor children over 3 and under 13 years of age. It is sacred to the memory of her lost baby boy and is named the Maurice Porter hospital.

In 1880, eighteen young women were graduated from a school of Technology in Boston. Of these, eight found at once steady employment as designers in print factories; one in pottery works; two in an oil-cloth manufactory; and one in a carpet-mill.

It is pleasant to record that a lady who has been out of the country for ten years or more, engaged in missionary labor, returning for a visit and rest, has seen nothing that so much surprises her as the increased earnestness of the women in the work of the church.—[The Presbyterian.

There seems to be a growing interest in cooking schools all over the country, and Mrs. Lincoln says that the demand for teachers is greater than the supply. To many doubtless the idea of a school for cooking is rather odd, but it certainly is a much shorter and pleasanter way of learning, than through experiments of one's own.

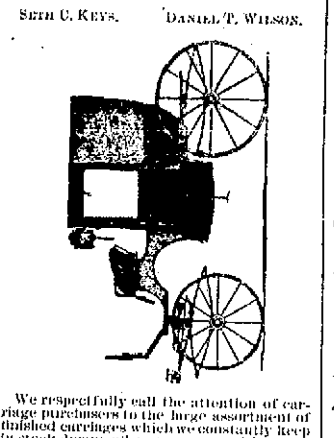

Mrs. Shaw, of Boston, supports thirty-three kindergartens, at an expense of $25,000 yearly. The industrial training of these schools gives the poor outcast children an after means of livelihood and a taste for work, besides keeping them from crime. In New York it is said the commitments for crime have diminished twenty-five per cent. in five years, a fact which is attributed to the children's aid society.

In Philadelphia, a woman's School of Design has sent out, during the last twenty years, hundreds of girls qualified to earn a comfortable income by this kind of work. One woman, for example, receives employment from a manufacturer of gas-fixtures and chandeliers, at a salary of three thousand dollars a year; another received ten dollars per week for painting cheap japaned toilet-sets. The difference in salary is due to the difference in the capacity or artistic ability of the designers.

Carpet Selecting.

THE PURCHASE of a carpet is of more importance than the mere gratification of the eye for the present moment. Even a low priced carpet, though trodden under foot, must daily appeal to the eye, perhaps for years. In selecting a carpet of any description, a good light is absolutely necessary to properly inspect quality, color and design. Beyond this most purchasers like to select from patterns that are latest and most artistic, with an undoubted guarantee as to quality. In order to obtain these advantages, one must necessarily visit the largest stores where only the best goods are kept, and where every particular grade can be found. Such is the

whose spacious warehouses occupy from 187 to 197 Broad street, who have now the largest carpet hall in New England, stocked with an enormous line of goods, second to none in the country. This mammoth hall, 50x160 feet, is well fitted with overhead skylights, thus securing the best possible light, and the stock comprises the latest foreign and domestic makes in Royal Wilton, Moquette, Velvet, Brussels, Tapestry, 3-ply Ingrains, &c.

Another spacious room is devoted to the exclusive sale of

so that one branch does not crowd upon another. The resources of the PROVIDENCE FURNITURE CO. are unequalled, and its facilities for serving its patrons and giving great bargains unequalled. Parties in the city should inspect these elegant goods, whether they purchase or not.

VISITORS AT PROVIDENCE should call at the great housefurnishing depot of the Prov. Furniture Co., Broad street, near Mathewson, and see the grand display made by this enterprising firm. Their warerooms are a marvel of capacity. An idea of their enormous business may be formed from the fact that their three great factories on Dorrance and Eddy streets are running night and day to their utmost capacity, to fill orders. Their prices are notably the lowest. No verbal enumeration of the bargains the Prov. Furniture Co. are offering this summer would do them justice. A call at their immense establishment will alone suffice to tell.

THE NEW FRENCH MINISTER.

The name of M. Roustan, the new French minister, has long been before the public in connection with French affairs in North Africa. The acute diplomat has played a rôle with the bey of Tunis, similar to that performed by Gen. Ignatieff at the court of Abdul Aziz. He has skilfully brought about the virtual annexation of Tunis to the French dominion in the northern part of Africa. M. Roustan was born at Ciotal (Bouches du Rhone) in 1836, and first entered upon his diplomatic career in 1855. He was appointed consul to Beyrouth in 1860, and subsequently to Smyrna. In 1865 he was appointed consul to Cairo, Egypt, and two years afterward was promoted to the position of consul-general at Alexandria. In the year 1868 he was sent as French consul to Damascus, where he remained until 1870, when he was appointed French commissioner to Palestine, and also consul-general at Beyrouth. In the same year he was sent to Tunis in the capacity of consul-general and charge d'affaires. On January 22, 1880, he was promoted to the grade of minister plenipotentiary. In the troubles which during the past two years have arisen between the French government and the bey of Tunis, M. Roustan has played a very important part, in which he has made many powerful friends and not a few bitter enemies. In September of last year M. Roustan paid a short visit to Paris in regard to Tunisian affairs, and returned in October with full power to settle any question that might arise. His success naturally excited the envy of others, and last December he brought an action against the manager and editor of the Paris Intransigeant, M. Rochefort's journal. M. Barthelemy St. Hilaire, late minister of foreign affairs, denied that M. Roustan was the cause of the war with Tunis, and declared that he was a zealous and upright agent, and that he disbelieved M. Rochefort's accusations. M. Waddington, Count de Lesseps and M. de Coutouly, the new French envoy to Mexico, were called as witnesses and strongly praised M. Roustan. The principal point of the evidence for the defence was that M. Roustan engaged in financial transactions with doubtful characters. The verdict was for the defendant, but during the trial the personal integrity of M. Roustan was never impugned. In February of this year he was appointed minister to this country, but did not start for here at once, as he was required to participate in the deliberations on the financial and administrative reorganization of Tunis. He is an able and experienced diplomat, and no one knows better than he how to advance the interest and uphold the prestige of his country. The successor of M. Roustan at Tunis is M. Cambon, formerly prefect of the department of the north.

M. Max Outrey, the retiring minister, will leave for France on the 21st inst. He was appointed as French representative to this country in January, 1877, and was warmly welcomed on his arrival in New York, during the following month, on his way to Washington, by a delegation of prominent French citizens. M. Outrey was formerly first secretary of legation in this country under M. De Monthelon, and, while acting in that capacity, married an American belle, Miss Helen Russell, niece of Mr. Charles H. Russell, ex-president of the Bank of Commerce, and a cousin of Mr. Delancey Kane. M. Outrey has also been French minister to Japan, one of his children being born in that country. M. Outrey's summer residence at this place has been rented for the present season.

LONDON, June 15.—Despatches from Egypt show that there is trouble already, notwithstanding the arrest of 400 rioters by the khedive. A revolution seems inevitable. FRIENDS' YEARLY MEETING.

This is the original faith of the society of Friends. They believe in the faith of the Holy Catholic Church; the Holy Ghost sent by the Father in the name of His Son, and by the Son in His own name; we believe in the communion of saints, we believe in the forgiveness of sins and the life everlasting. Conscience is a natural faculty by which we distinguish between the right and the wrong. Conscience is like the lantern, it must be lighted up in order to see clearly. Paul's conscience was not lighted up when he was persecuting the Church of Christ. How can we have a good conscience? Only by repentance toward God and having faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Do you believe we can have a conscience void of offence? We may through the grace of Christ reign over our bodies and keep our bodies. Paul not only did this, but did right. When we are brought into the liberty which Christ makes free, it means that it is liberty to stop doing wrong and the liberty to go on doing right. He hears some brother and sister say, "Do you mean that I shall not fall into sin again?" He meant to say that is the possible life of the christian. If any man sin we have an advocate in Jesus Christ. Let us confess our sins and we have the assurance that He is faithful and just in his promises to forgive us our sins. Thus people stop and think they can go on sinning and being forgiven as long as they like. But this cannot be, for having been forgiven we must walk in the light continually, as God is in the light and as we do that by the teaching he has given us and the providential circumstance of our life we have fellowship with Him, and the blood of Jesus Christ, His Son, cleanses us from all sin. The speaker continued to explain the various beliefs of the Friends, saying thee and thou because they thought it right, not swearing either profanely or in court; telling the truth at all times, and so on. They not only believed in the Real Presence, but they knew it, experienced it. We know that where two or three are gathered together, He is in their midst. We know He is present, for we feel His very presence. He believed he had been nearer to heaven than he ever expected to be in any other way, when he was in the midst of silent worship. An old friend of his and minister who had died at Wilmington had told his two sons that when in silent meeting he was so filled with all the fullness of God that he had to ask the Almighty God lest his mortal frame could not contain it. These simple faiths were theirs and he believed in their efficacy to work good unto the Lord.

Timothy Hussey hoped that our hearts may always burn with zeal for souls. The church is to be the channel of blessing for all those around us. He has ordained that through the preaching of the gospel we shall be saved. We must have the spirit of love. The measure of our love for God is the measure of our love for our fellowmen. Love in Him must be perfected in order that we might be able to do the work of the Lord Jesus Christ. Our ministry must be a ministry of love. We cannot always tell just what unction is, but we can always tell when a man has not got it. He ventured to refer to the spirit of consecration and to say that it was a well-known fact that there have gone forth all sorts of narrow ideas of Christian life. Men have been led off to all kinds of absurdities. The special point in his mind was that we should always stick to the grand old fundamental principles of the cross, Jesus Christ and Him crucified. He wanted them to cling to these ideas. He wanted them to avoid seeking mystical explanations of certain passages in the Bible, but to go out and preach Jesus Christ. We need never to fear the Lord. The churches shall be multiplied. He hoped the churches would be edified and multiplied.

Amos Kenworthy said that in this revival work he had received a wonderful blessing. If you don't feel like praying ask the congregation to seek the footstool of the Lord. He was glad to say that in the first meeting of the ministers and elders there were more lips opened in prayer and praise than ever before. They could see the result for they had had a splendid yearly meeting—if the meeting of the ministers and elders had been dead, so also would the other meetings. Fathers and mothers, be strong in the Lord in your meetings at home. Go on with your good work. God is willing and anxious to lend a helping hand if we ask it. Do not be afraid but ask Him all day long to help you in the great struggle. But he hears that many say, "Well we hear of so many in the meeting and then they do not go and do right." He would say then to those who do do right, go out yourselves and work harder than ever, and put in a little extra work for those whom you do not think do right. He prayed for all those present and hoped that every monthly meeting would be richly blessed hereafter in the work of revival for the Lord's house.

John Pennington made a very interesting address. He saw that much good had been spoken. As we go out from this yearly meeting let us remember this that if our sins are forgiven, He has called us into His service for some work. There must be no idle sheep in His fold. He has declared in His word that all are called and that there can be no idlers in the Lord's vineyard. Too many say that when they read the Holy Scripture that they are for the period that is past. He believed that every word that was written was written and sent as much for today as for the time when Jesus and His apostles were on earth. Therefore it is in his heart to exhort them to come down before God, and ask and receive a pure heart and a baptism of the Holy Ghost that we may be able to work His will understandingly. Have faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and the Holy Ghost, and we should sooner or later be able to deliver Israel. He advocated the holding of prayer meetings every week. The work of the church and of the Lord would then be revived, and we should gather in souls to the fold of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Barton Jones, of Indiana, spoke feelingly of his personal condition and hoped that the Lord would give him strength to do his work, whether he was in a field of of usefulness or on a bed of suffering; he desired to thank them there for the love they had extended to him, and he hoped this yearly meeting would prosper.

Emeline Tuttle said they must not stop to look at the character of the work that was given them. If she had, she never would have gone ahead with the labors that had been assigned to her. She praised the Lord that He had called her into the field to work and labor in His behalf. She thanked Him for the service He had given her, and for the opportunity to do some little for the benefit of mankind.

After a few minutes of silent prayer the congregation dispersed.

—Mr. Thomas H. Clarke, superintendent of schools, is about to take up his residence in Jamestown for a few weeks.

—The members of the George Holland Comedy Company take in the Ocean Drive this afternoon, and will visit the Casino.

—Many advance orders for the mailing of the Newport Journal of the present week have been received at the Daily News office. The paper will contain a very full and accurate report of the yearly meeting as well as the local and general news of the week and will be an exceedingly valuable number.

THE EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

The second day of the session was held yesterday. After divine service the meeting was called to order by the president and the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Bishop Clark was added to the committee on Berkeley monument, as chairman.

The committee to whom was referred the matter of the Sarah U. Stoddard estate, reported that in their judgment the terms of the will required the payment of $100 annually for a term of years, and that the whole amount could not be appropriated at once. In agreement with this report the $100 for this year was divided between St. Phillip's, Crompton, St. Matthew's, Jamestown.

The convention then made the following elections:

Members of the board of missions to serve two years—Clerical, the Rev. W. N. Ackley, the Rev. C. A. L. Rickards; lay, Mr. G. L. Cooke, Mr. C. E. Boon, Mr. William Grosvenor. Mr. J. M. Cross was unanimously re-elected treasurer. Mr. F. E. Richmond was continued on the board of audit and finance to serve three years, and the Rev. S. H. Webb was re-elected registrar.

Other officers are as follows:—Standing committee, the Revs. Daniel Henshaw, D. D., D. H. Greer, D. D., C. A. L. Richards, George J. Magill, Messrs. E. A. Greene, George L. Cooke, W. W. Blodgett, T. P. I. Goddard.

The report of the committee appointed to report on the proposed amendment to the ratification of the prayer book was received and a resolution was adopted that while the convention is of the opinion that greater liberty is deserved, some other method than that proposed by the committee was needed.

A resolution was adopted at the suggestion of the committee on the non-attendance of children in Sunday schools, appointing a committee to arrange for an assembly of the teachers and officers of the Sunday schools of the diocese to be held in Providence, and the Bishop appointed Rev. R. B. Peet, Rev. Mr. Ackley and Mr. J. W. Vernon as that committee.

The next convention will be held with St. Paul's Church, Pawtucket.

THE HAIR

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED BY

DR. JAY O. DAY,

No. 3 Aborn St., 2d Door from Westminster St., Prov.

DR. DAY is the only professional hair and scalp specialist in New England. He has devoted twenty years to the practice of his specialty—has successfully treated hundreds of cases. By an extensive experience in this special field of medical science, he has acquired a skill in the treatment of the hair and scalp that is really remarkable. He treats the hair on purely scientific principles. He makes a careful examination of each case, and prepares treatment, according to the requirements of each case. His treatment is HARMLESS, SCIENTIFIC, STIMULATING, INVIGORATING, CLEANSING, PURIFYING, AND NEVER FAILS TO PRODUCE A THICK, HEAVY, VIGOROUS, HEALTHY, LUXURIANT GROWTH OF HAIR.

When the examination of your case is made, the Doctor can tell whether the hair follicles are destroyed or not. If they are, he will tell you so at once, and will not treat you, for when the hair follicles are once destroyed no power on earth can ever make the hair grow again; but if the examination of your case reveals the fact that the hair follicles still exist, you can rest assured that he can produce a thick, heavy growth of hair. He cures Frontal Crown Part, Temple and Circular Spot Baldness, Thin, Harsh, Dry, Split Ends, Faded and Premature Gray Hair, Scaly Scalp Tetter, Yellow Crusty Tetter, Ringworm of the Scalp, Dandruff.

Also treats the eyebrows, lashes, whiskers and superfluous hair. Avoid the use of advertised hair cure-alls and consult Dr. Day at once, and he will take entire charge of your case, and will produce the desired results in every curable case. Remember there are forty different diseases of the hair and scalp which require special treatment.

We do not attach the importance to nor pay that attention to the hair that we should. Every lady and gentleman should pay as much attention to the care and treatment of the hair and scalp as they do to their general health. Nothing adds so much to one's personal beauty as a thick, healthy, luxuriant head of hair. It is the glory of woman and the pride of man. By proper care no one should be bald or gray under fifty years. Every lady and gentleman can have a healthy, vigorous growth of hair by consulting Dr. Jay O. Day, Hair and Scalp Specialist.

NOTE. Dr. Jay O. Day will open an office in Newport, for the season, at No. 26 PELHAM STREET, next door to The Aquidneck (the office formerly occupied by the late Dr. Butler). Call or write.

SIX POINTS.

ALL WORTH REMEMBERING.

☞ CUT THEM OUT. ☜

People take nauseating doses for every pain and ache, which puts their stomachs out of order, and then a physician is called to attend to them. This is all needless, for if the HOP PLASTER is used, it is absorbed into the system in just the way to cure without bringing on other troubles.

A medicine to be popular must be both agreeable and efficacious, the HOP PLASTER is a rare union of vegetable agents combined with safety, reliability and effectiveness. The indiscriminate use of medicines taken internally is far more productive of injury than benefit.

The most powerful medicated and effective plaster ever invented is the HOP PLASTER; it embodies all the medicinal and sedative properties of the Hop in combination with the most highly approved gums and balsams known to modern pharmacy.

The HOP PLASTER is made porous, thus allowing free evaporation of moisture, stimulating the innumerable pores of the body to a healthy action and giving tone and vigor to the whole system. It is a discovery of a Yankee chemist.

The medicinal virtues of the Hop have been utilized for centuries. They are all concentrated in the HOP PLASTER, and do more real good in relieving pain than any root, drug or herb liquid medicine in the whole domain of nature.

HOP PLASTERS are sold by all druggists in the United States and Canada, 25c. each or 5 for $1, and are guaranteed to be the best in the markets. Avoid cheap, worthless goods.

To Gratify His Wife

An Interesting Story.—A Hopeless Case Cured.—A Good Reason for Happiness.

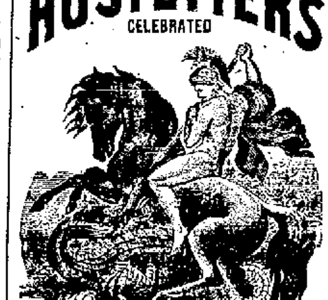

Statement of Mr. Washington Monroe, of Catskill, Green County, New York.

"For many years I have suffered from a complaint which the physicians called Gravel. I had employed some of the most noted doctors without obtaining any permanent relief, and for a long time my case was regarded as hopeless. All who knew the circumstances said I must die. Finally, my wife induced me to try a bottle of Dr. Kennedy's 'Favorite Remedy' which she had somewhere heard of or seen advertised. Without the slightest faith in it, but solely to gratify her, I bought a bottle of a druggist in our village. I used that and two or three bottles more, and—to make a long story short—I am now as healthy a man as there is in the country.

Since then I have recommended 'Favorite Remedy' to others whom I knew to have suffered from Kidney and Liver complaints; and I assure the public that the 'Favorite Remedy' has done its work with a similar completeness in every single instance, and I trust some other sick and discouraged mortal may hear of it and try the 'Favorite Remedy' as I did."

Though Rhode Island is the smallest state in the Union she is the most thickly settled. No other state except the five above mentioned has 100 inhabitants to the square mile. The census gives Rhode Island 1085 square miles—875 less than Delaware.

Newport Line!

SPECIAL NOTICE!

ON MONDAY, JUNE 12, THE STEAMERS

commanded by careful and experienced officers, will commence their trips for the summer season, between New York and Newport. These vessels have undergone a thorough overhauling, and extensive repairs and improvements have been made, greatly increasing their attractions. New carpets have been laid in the saloons. The ventilation of the dining saloon, by mechanical means, rendering the air at all times pure and the room agreeable, is an improvement that will, no doubt, be very much appreciated. Bulk heads have been placed on the Main Deck aft, making that part of the vessel a pleasant resort for smokers. It is the determination of the management to make this a STRICTLY FIRST CLASS LINE, and nothing will be spared which will add to the comfort and convenience of patrons. It will be run for the accommodation of travel to and from the summer resorts and important points local to the Old Colony Railroad, and is especially designed for the better accommodation of the Newport travel. Double the number of staterooms, heretofore assigned to that city, have been allotted for the present season.
From NEWPORT, steamers will leave daily (Sundays excepted), at 8.30 P. M., and arrive at New York about 6 A. M., making sure connections will all lines diverging.
From NEW YORK, steamers will leave daily (Sundays excepted), at 6.00 P. M., and arrive at Newport about 5.00 A. M. No gong will be rung, and passengers may rest undisturbed until 7.00 A. M.
